

GAIL Celebrates International Women's Day

Inspired by Hon'ble Prime Minister's vision of promoting #NariShakti and as a tribute to its women employees of the organization, GAIL (India) Ltd. celebrated International Women's Day at corporate office, Delhi. A video was launched by GAIL on its social media platforms with the hash tag #EveryDayHerDay showcasing how women are an important part of our lives every day. Women across all GAIL offices participated in the video and portrayed the various aspects of their lives and their contributions. Social media activation was also integrated along the video asking netizens to tag their special woman along with their special message to her. The event saw a high turnout & digital engagement, where GAIL employees enthusiastically participated to gift "Doll" badges to their colleagues. GAIL aims at treasuring its employees as its best resources and believes in building a diversified workforce.
